I certify that John W. Rutledge volunteered and served as a private in the company under my command, in the regiment commanded by Colonel Samuel M. Thompson of the Brigade of volunteer volunteers commanded by Brigadier General Samuel Whitmore on an expedition directed against the Sac and Fox Indians in the Rock River country. He was enrolled on the 27th day of January, 1832, and discharged on the 8th day of August, of the same year, having served forty-eight days.
