The said Corporation shall, at the next session of this General Assembly, and at each subsequent general session, during the existence of its charter, report to the said, the amount of debt due from said corporation, the amount of debt due to the said, the amount of specie in its vault, and an account of all lands then owned by the said, and the amount for which such lands have been taken; and moreover, if said corporation shall, at any time, neglect or refuse, to submit its books, papers, and all and every thing necessary to a full and fair examination of its affairs, to any person or persons appointed by the General Assembly for the purpose of making such examination, such corporation shall forfeit its charter.