

SEC. 4. And the said Anna Sheapheard is further required in case of selling the said land and the purchasing of other lands, or the exchanging thereof for other lands, to take a title in the name of the infant heirs with the proper covenants of title and warranty in fee simple, for their use and benefit; and said lands so purchased shall be vested absolutely in said heirs, subject however to widow's dower in the manner as the lands now owned by said heirs are, provided, the widow relinquishes her dower in the land authorized to be sold by this act.

In purchasing or exchanging, title to be taken in the name of the heirs.

Title vested in heirs subject to dower. Provido.

This act to be in force from its passage.

This bill having been laid before the Council of Revision, and ten days not having intervened before the adjournment of the General Assembly, and said bill not having been returned with the objections of the Council on the first day of the present session of the General Assembly, the same has become a law.

Given under my hand this 6th day of December, 1836.

A. P. FIELD,
Secretary of State.

AN ACT to provide for receiving a distributive share of the surplus revenue of the United States on deposit. In force 17th Dec. 1836.

SEC. 2. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois represented in the General Assembly, That the State of Illinois does hereby consent, and agree to receive, upon deposit from the United States, all sums of money to which the State of Illinois is or may be entitled under and according to the provisions of an act of the Congress of the United States, entitled "an act to regulate the deposits of the public money," approved on the twenty-third day of June one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six. And the faith of the State is hereby irrevocably pledged to comply with and perform all the conditions and provisions contained in the said act, in relation to receiving and refunding the said money; and the treasurer of this State is authorised to receive from the United States the said sums of money, and to execute certificates of deposit for the same, in such forms and with such conditions as is required by the act of Congress aforesaid.

State of Illinois consents to receive upon deposit all sums of money which is or may become due her from the U. S. under the act of congress, approved, 23d June, 1836. The faith of the State pledged to comply with the provisions in said act. Treasurer of State authorised to receive the money from the U. S. and give certificate,

SEC. 2. This act shall be in force from its passage.
