

change, and such change shall be considered the permanent road, and a record of the same shall be made.

Commissioners
When & where to meet
To take oath County commissioners to allow compensation

SEC. 5. Said commissioners, or a majority of them shall meet at the town of York on the first Monday in May next, or within one month thereafter, and after first being duly sworn before some acting justice of the peace faithfully to discharge the duty enjoined on them by this act, shall proceed to make the examination aforesaid. Said commissioners shall be paid such reasonable compensation for their services as the county commissioners' court shall think just and equitable.

APPROVED, 4th March, 1837.

In force March 2, 1837. AN ACT for a State road from Jacksonville to Syracuse and Bloomington;

Duty of commissioners.
Place of commencement.
Termination of road.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted by the people of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That Russell Post, Jonas Whitney, and John Armstrong, be and they are hereby appointed commissioners, whose duty it shall be to view, mark, survey, and locate a state road, to commence at the county line of Morgan county, where the state road leading by William Crow's to Petersburg crosses the same, thence by way of Greensburg to Petersburg in Sangamon county, thence to Syracuse on section six, town twenty north, range four west from the third principal meridian in said county of Sangamon, at which place said road shall terminate.

To intersect state road.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of the aforesaid commissioners to view, mark, survey, and locate a state road as follows: commencing at Petersburg in Sangamon county, thence to Postville, thence to Waynesville, and Isaac Funk's, thence to intersect the state road leading from Springfield to Bloomington, at or near the farm of Lemuel Foster in McLean county.

When and where to meet
To be sworn Shall survey & when survey is completed shall be filed in clerks office

SEC. 3. Said commissioners shall meet on or before the first Monday of June next, or within sixty days thereafter at the house of William Crow in Morgan county, and after being duly sworn according to law, by some justice of the peace faithfully and impartially according to the best of their skill and understanding, to execute and discharge the duties imposed on them by this act, shall proceed to view, survey, locate, and mark or stake out said roads from point to point as mentioned in the foregoing sections of this act, upon the nearest and best routes avoiding as much as practicable, any injury to farms, improvements, and private property on said routes, and when said commissioners shall have completed their surveys and locations of the roads aforesaid, they shall make a complete plat together with the field notes thereof, which shall be filed in the office of the several clerks of the county commissioners' courts through which said roads may pass, within one month after said roads are surveyed and located, shall be deemed public state roads. Shall be filed in clerks office.

SEC. 4. The county commissioners' courts of the several counties through which said roads pass, shall appoint supervisors of said roads, who shall cause the same to be opened fifty feet wide, and kept in repair as other state roads. Supervisors to be appointed.

SEC. 5. The county commissioners' courts of the several counties through which said roads pass, shall allow to each of said road commissioners a compensation for their services not exceeding two dollars per day to each of said commissioners, and to be paid out of the county treasuries of such counties, in proportion to the portion of said roads in each county. Compensation

APPROVED March 2d, 1837.

---

AN ACT to relocate a part of the State road from Charleston to Paris. In force May 1, 1837.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That Isaac Lewis, John Galbraith, and William Fewell of Coles county, be and they are hereby appointed commissioners to review and relocate so much of the state road leading from Charleston in Coles county, to Paris in Edgar county, as lies between Samuel Lambricks and Robert Brooks in the county of Coles. Commissioners to review state road

SEC. 2. Said commissioners or a majority of them, shall meet at said Lambricks on the first day of May next, or within sixty days thereafter, and after being duly sworn by some justice of the peace for said county of Coles, faithfully to discharge the duties enjoined upon them by this act, shall proceed to view, and relocate and establish said road on the nearest practicable route for a permanent location, crossing the Embarrass river at some suitable point for the erection of a bridge across said river, doing as little damage to private property as the nature of the case will permit. To be sworn.

SEC. 3. Said commissioners shall have power if they shall deem it necessary to employ a competent surveyor and chainmen to aid them in said location, and as soon as practicable after said road is located, said commissioners or a majority of them, shall make out a report accompanied by a map of said road under their hands and seals, and Powers of Make report with map