

authorize the destruction and demolition of all instruments and devices used for the purpose of gaming; to forbid the selling or giving away any ardent spirits, or other intoxicating liquor, to any child, apprentice, or servant, without the consent of his or her parent, guardian, master, or mistress; to compel the owner or occupant of any grocery, barn, privy, cellar, tannery, shop, stable, sewer, or other unwholesome nauseous house, or place, to cleanse, remove, or abate the same, from time to time, as often as may be necessary for the health, comfort, and convenience of the inhabitants of said town; to direct and manage the storage of powder; to erect market-houses, and regulate markets; and upon information, filed before said trustees, that any house or room in the said town is used for the purpose of gaming, they shall have power to authorize the constable of said town to break open and enter said house or room, for the purpose of arresting such persons as may be gambling; and destroying and demolishing such instruments and devices used for gambling. They shall have power to levy a fine for the breach of any ordinances, not exceeding fifty dollars. They shall have power to provide for the resurvey of said town; and such resurvey, when made and recorded, shall be deemed and considered to be legal and valid, and shall be evidence in relation to the boundaries of the lots in said town; and they may erect permanent monuments of said survey. They shall have power to erect lamps, and regulate the lighting thereof.

APPROVED, March 2, 1839.

---

AN ACT to revive an act, entitled "An act to incorporate the stockholders of the Randolph Manufacturing Company," approved January 16, 1836. In force, Mar. 2, 1839.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That the act, entitled "An act to incorporate the stockholders of the Randolph Manufacturing Company," approved January 16, 1836, be, and the same is hereby, revived, with all the rights, privileges, and advantages in the said act contained; Provided, That, if the said company shall not have been organized under said act hereby revived, and the works located, and business commenced, within two years from the first day of July next, this act shall be void and of no effect. Act revived. Proviso.

SEC. 2. That nothing contained in the act, entitled "An act to incorporate the Cairo City and Canal Company," approved March 4, 1836, shall be so construed as to prevent the said company from selling lots situate in the city of Cairo under the provisions of the act of the Legislative Council and House of Representatives of the Illinois Territory, incorporating the City and Bank of Cairo, approved January 9, 1818; and it shall be lawful for them to do so in the manner and for Lots in city of Cairo.

the uses and purposes in the last named act specified; and any one of the commissioners appointed in and by said territorial act is hereby authorized to consent to any sale or disposition which the proprietors of the city of Cairo have or may make of said city, or the land on which said city was located.

APPROVED, March 2, 1839.

In force, Mar. 2, 1839. AN ACT to incorporate the seminaries of learning therein named.

- SEC. 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That the Rev. James Dupier, John Dixon, Samuel M. Bowman, Smith Gilbraith, Frederick R. Ducher, William F. Bradshaw, Hugh Graham, and their successors, be, and they are hereby, constituted a body politic and corporate, by the name of "The trustees of the Lee Seminary of Learning," and, by that name and style, shall remain and have perpetual succession. The said seminary of learning shall be and remain in or near the town of Dixon, in Ogle county. The trustees of said seminary shall not exceed twelve, exclusive of the presiding officer, who shall, ex officio, be a member of the board of trustees. For the present the aforesaid individuals shall constitute the board of trustees, who shall fill the remaining vacancies at their pleasure.
- Body politic. Name & style. Location. Number of trustees. Present board
- Objects of institution. SEC. 2. The primary objects of the institution shall be the education of the youth of the country, and to fit and prepare them for the various duties of life.
- Powers. SEC. 3. The corporate powers hereby bestowed shall be the following, viz: To have perpetual succession; to make contracts; to sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded; and to grant and receive by their corporate name; to accept, acquire, purchase, or sell property, real, personal, or mixed, in all lawful ways; to use, employ, manage, and dispose of all such property, and all money belonging to said corporation, in such manner as shall seem to the trustees best adapted to the objects above mentioned; to have a common seal, and alter and change the same at pleasure; to make such by-laws for the regulation of said institution as are not inconsistent with the constitution and laws of this State.
- Seal. By laws. SEC. 4. The trustees of said corporation shall have authority, from time to time, to prescribe and regulate the kind and course of studies to be pursued in said seminary; to fix the rate of tuition, and other academical expenses; to appoint instructors, and such other officers and agents as may be necessary in managing the concerns of the institution; to define their duties, to fix their compensation, and to displace or remove them; to erect necessary buildings; to purchase books, chemical and philosophical apparatus, and other suitable
- Further powers.