Dear Stuart:

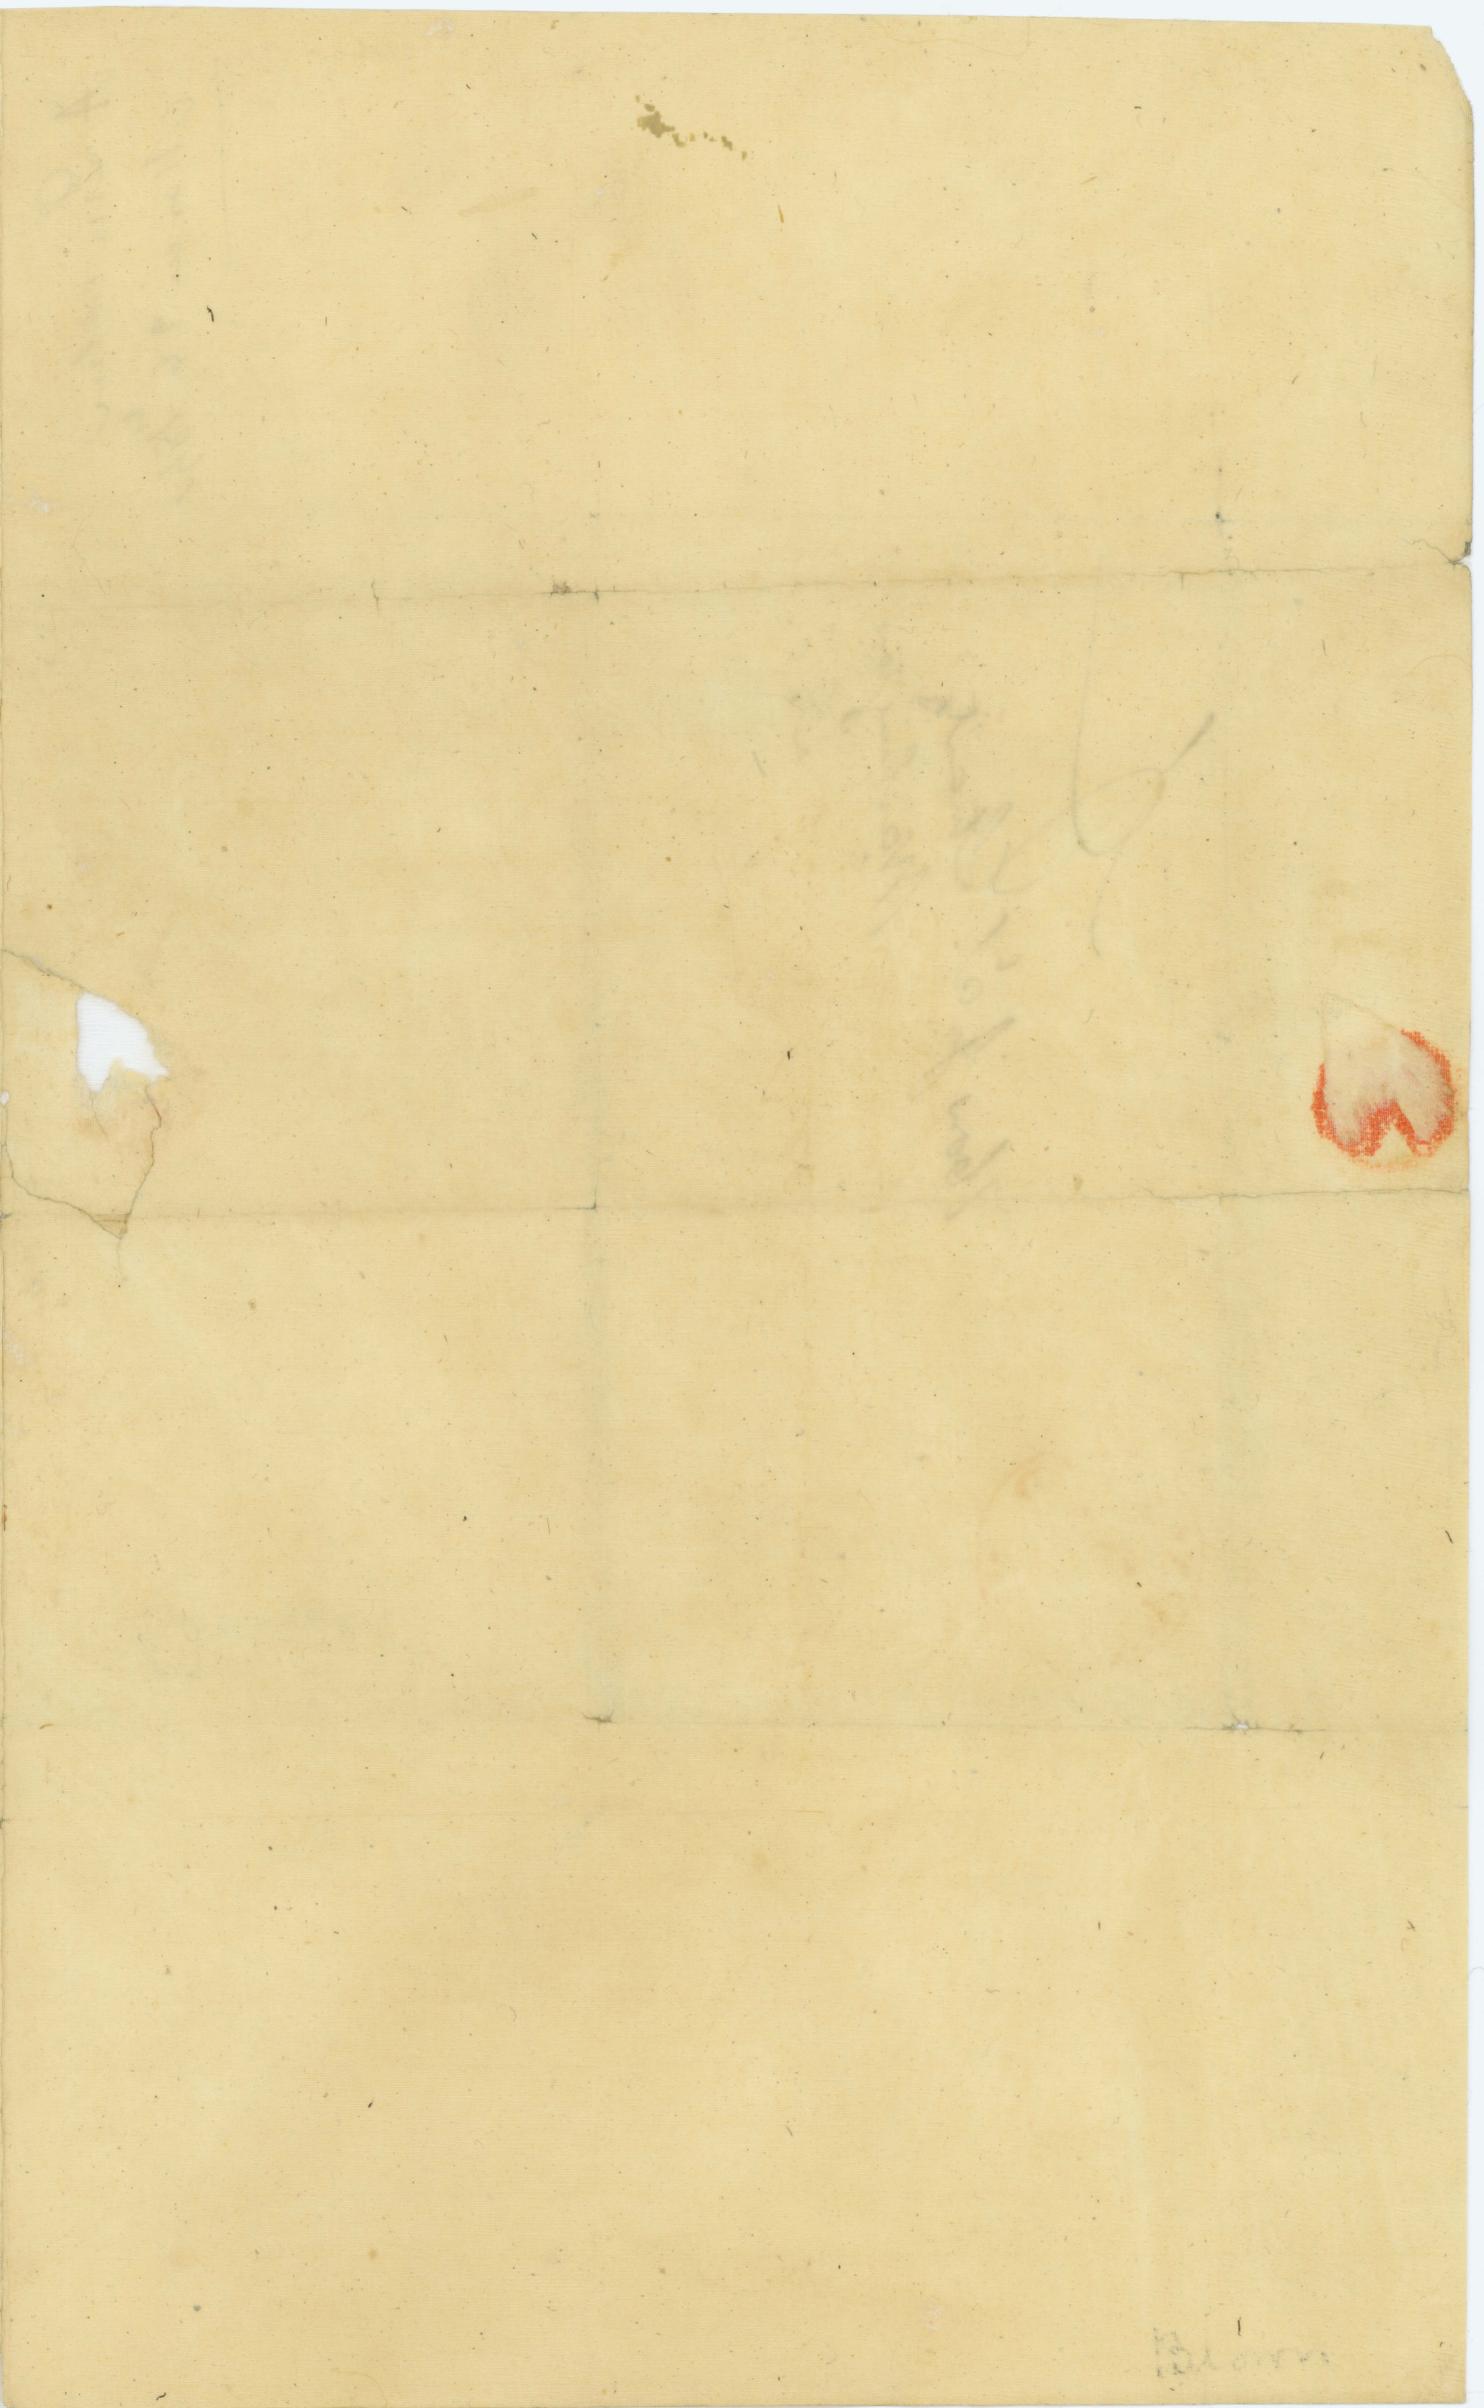

In relation to the King's matter, I can say no more than this, that the check was taken from the Bank by you, and on the same day you made a note in our memorandum book, stating you had sent it by mail to King; but there is no memorandum concerning it at Irwin's - King has ceased writing about it, and consequently I have some hope that he has received it -

We have had a Convention for nominating candidates in this county - Baker was put on the track for the Senate, and Bradford, Brown of the Island Grove, Josiah Francis, and Harriell, & I for the House - Newman was very much hurt at not being nominated, but he has become tolerably well reconciled - I was much, very much, wounded myself at his being left out - The fact is, the County delegates made the nominations as they pleased, and they pleased to make them all from the county, except Baker & me, whom they supposed necessary to make stump speeches - Old Col - Talbot is nominated for Sheriff - That's right -

The Locos have no candidates on the track yet, except Dick Taylor for the Senate - Last Saturday he made a speech, and May answered him - The way May let the wind out of him, was a perfect wonder - The court room was very full, and neither you nor I ever saw a crowd in this county so near all one side, and all feeling so good before - You will see a short account of it in the Journal -
