

Sec 1 Be it enacted by the people of the State of Illinois represented in the General Assembly: That the seat of Justice, County of Logan be and the same is hereby declared to be permanently located at the Town of Postville in said county

Sec 2. The proprietor or proprietors of the said town of Postville shall by the first day of June next pay to the County Commissioners of the County of Logan, the sum of three thousand dollars, Provided however that the value of all donations ~~therefore~~ made by the proprietors for the use of the said county shall be included in, and form a part of the aforesaid sum of three thousand dollars.

Sec 3. The payment of the above donation may be made in money, or in town lots in the Town of Postville, or both, at the option of the donors; and the County Commissioners are hereby authorized to receive donations of town lots, the value of which shall be agreed upon by the County Commissioners and the person donating the same

Sec 4. The county commissioners of Logan County shall proceed to sell, at public or private sale such portions of any these lots that may be donated, and such times, as in their judgment produce the greatest amount of money and be conducive to the best interests of the County; the sales may be made on credit of six, twelve, and eighteen months, the purchaser giving a mortgage on the premises, and approved security for the payment of the purchase money.

Provided that if the proprietors of the said Town of Postville shall not within ninety days from the passage of this act comply with the provisions of this act on their part then this act is to be null and void, and the County Commissioners of said County are required to select some place as the temporary County Seat - other than Postville, which place so selected shall be and remain the County Seat of said County until the end of the next regular or special session of the General Assembly.
