ARREST OF THE GREAT FORGER.—The findividual charged with being guilty of the recent extensive forgeries upon Brown, Brothers & Co. in New York, has been arrested in Philadelphia. His name is Edwards, and is a native of the whigs of Illinois to look about them and select candidates for Governor and Lieutenant Governor.

We entertain the same opinion. The locos are moving in this matter, and should not be allowed to occupy the vantage ground, viz—AN EARLY and Mississippi. About $44.000 were found moving in this matter, and should not be allowed and and Mississippi. About $44,000 were found superiority to the northward, and who openly start.

by that which a majority of the whig press shall think best. For ourselves we are decidedly in favor of a Convention, as the only means to secure an election of our candidates, and that too, as early as possible.

The case was most ably argued, on the part of the Bank and against the bill by Col. Field. He occupied the court for three hours in a speech, that, by all who heard it was pronounced unas swerable.
