Menard County } SS

George W. Miles, and James P. McCoy, trading under the style and firm name of Miles & McCoy, and plaintiffs, in a certain suit now pending in the Circuit Court of the County aforesaid, which was taken into said Court by appeal from one of the Justices of the Peace of said County, and in which Daniel Miles, is defendant, being first duly sworn, state upon oath, each for himself, that any instrument of writing purporting to be a receipt, or acknowledgement of payment, and purporting to have been made and executed by them to and in favour of said defendant, never was executed by them, said affiants, or either of them, excepting a certain receipt purporting to be given by said affiants to said defendant for the amount of his account in full of all demands up to the date thereof, ~~in full of all accounts up to its date~~ hearing date the sixth day of Sept A.D. 1841 and being in full up to that date, which was given by Thomas S. Laird, as affiant's agent, and which they admit is genuine.
