

QUINCY WHIG.

BARTLETT & SULLIVAN.

QUINCY, ILLINOIS, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 15, 1846.

VOL. 6. NO. 52.

STOLEN—On the night of the 21st inst., some time east of Quincy, or near RAY RIVER, about one-half mile from town, a horse and carriage, with traps, hats, and leather, were taken. Any person who may be interested in recovering these articles, is requested to report.

4000 POUNDS
EMBRACING
of various improved patterns now in use at the West.

Stetson Double Bass, trimm'd in the best manner, with Copper & Tin Furniture, and set out in the most elegant manner.

M. B. Bridges' Victorian Cabinet and the Grecian Cabinet, having doors decorated with the names of famous cities of the world, and for sale at the shop of M. B. Bridges.

PITTSBURGH AGENTS: COMSTOCK & CO. have received direct 150 boxes marked Window Glass, 100 boxes marked Coal Gas, 100 sets Wagons Boxes.

25,000 lbs. extracted Iron and Steel.
100,000 lbs. cast Iron.

2,000 lbs. steel wire, iron wire, and the public in general, that they expect their order will be filled as soon as possible.

Every box of iron or steel, sold by us will be fully paid for when received. Our tanks are now full, and we are ready to ship, and our terms to Shailly's and dealers, we thus trust you will order.

March 12. — COMSTOCK & CO.

FOR LEASE:

500 ft. of front from West St. to Atlantic Street, for a term of years, to be let on a reasonable rent.

It is great land and is good neighborhood, with abundance of water, near the city of Pittsburg, Pa.

Lot 7, E. in West's addition to Pittsburg.
Price $1,200 per year. JOHN GOODWIN.

TOTAL SALE: A good iron store, RICH HARDY'S, in West's addition to Pittsburg.
Half an acre of land, with brick building 18 x 35 feet, and 16 x 24 foot addition.
Price $1,500.

LANDS FOR SALE:

S. E. 320 ft. W.
NE 1/4 of section, 40 acres
Belmonte County.

S. E. 320 ft. N. W.
N. E. 1/4 of section, 340 acres, 100 ft. W.
N. E. 1/4 of section,
340 acres, 100 ft. S.
N. W. 1/4 of section, 340 acres, 100 ft. E.

N. W. 1/4 of section,
340 acres, 100 ft. E.

N. E. 1/4 of section,
340 acres, 100 ft. N.
S. W. 1/4 of section,
340 acres, 100 ft. N.

N. W. 1/4 of section,
340 acres, 100 ft. N.
S. W. 1/4 of section,
340 acres, 100 ft. N.
S. E. 1/4 of section, 340 acres, 100 ft. N.
E. 1/4 of section,
340 acres, 100 ft. S.
N. E. 1/4 of section,
340 acres, 100 ft. S.

RANDOLPH & GOODWIN, VALUABLE TIMBER LAND FOR
S. E. 320 ft. of lot of N. E. 1/4 of S. E.
W. 1/4 acre in East's addition to Pittsburg.
It is a good timber land, with some good drainage water, to be taken in part per acre.

Price $1,500.

RANDOLPH & GOODWIN,
REAL ESTATE.
Brokerage and Agency.

For the benefit of the public, we offer the services of our Law Office, an agency for the sale of real estate, the purchase or sale of personal property, or any other transaction.

Persons desirous of purchasing or renting, or selling, any property, should not fail to avail themselves of our services.

We have many good opportunities to be had.

Persons desirous of investing their funds in real estate, should be well accommodated by leaving them at this office.

For the public, and especially in
TO THE PUBLIC.

NOTICE.—HELEN HORNMAN,
LADY GOODWIN, wife of the Honorable J. D.
LORD GOODWIN, of the counties of Adams and Macoupin, has been granted a
release of all debts due her by the said
husband, and is entitled to receive no
more than the sum of $1000, payable
in cash, within three months after the date
of the release, on making her appearance at his residence, in West's addition to Pittsburg, at any time within the next
forty (40) days.

Any person who may have any
claim against the said wife, is directed to make his claim against the said husband.

March 12, 1846.—HORNMAN & GOODWIN.

ATTACHED to this paper, is a copy of the deed of trust executed by

John F. Nichols, and others, for the construction of a bridge over the Rocky Fork of the Illinois River, between

West's addition to Pittsburg and the City of Quincy, ILLINOIS, which is sufficient to pay the amount of the debt.

JOHN F. NICHOLS,
March 12, 1846.

TO THE PUBLIC.

NOTICE.—HELEN HORNMAN,

WIFE OF THE HONORABLE J. D.

GOODWIN, of the counties of Ad-

ams and Macoupin, has been granted a
release of all debts due her by the said

husband, and is entitled to receive no
more than the sum of $1000, payable
in cash, within three months after the date
of the release, on making her appear-

ance at his residence, in West's addition
to Pittsburg, at any time within the next

forty (40) days.

Any person who may have any
claim against the said wife, is directed to

make his claim against the said husband.

March 12, 1846.—HORNMAN & GOODWIN.

ATTACHED to this paper, is a
copy of the deed of trust executed by

John F. Nichols, and others, for the construction of a bridge over the
Rocky Fork of the Illinois River, between

West's addition to Pittsburg and the

City of Quincy, ILLINOIS, which is

sufficient to pay the amount of the debt.

JOHN F. NICHOLS,
March 12, 1846.

TO THE PUBLIC.

NOTICE.—HELEN HORNMAN,

WIFE OF THE HONORABLE J. D.

GOODWIN, of the counties of Ad-

ams and Macoupin, has been granted a
release of all debts due her by the said

husband, and is entitled to receive no
more than the sum of $1000, payable
in cash, within three months after the date
of the release, on making her appear-

ance at his residence, in West's addition
to Pittsburg, at any time within the next

forty (40) days.

Any person who may have any
claim against the said wife, is directed to

make his claim against the said husband.

March 12, 1846.—HORNMAN & GOODWIN.

ATTACHED to this paper, is a
copy of the deed of trust executed by

John F. Nichols, and others, for the construction of a bridge over the
Rocky Fork of the Illinois River, between

West's addition to Pittsburg and the

City of Quincy, ILLINOIS, which is

sufficient to pay the amount of the debt.

JOHN F. NICHOLS,
March 12, 1846.

TO THE PUBLIC.

NOTICE.—HELEN HORNMAN,

WIFE OF THE HONORABLE J. D.

GOODWIN, of the counties of Ad-

ams and Macoupin, has been granted a
release of all debts due her by the said

husband, and is entitled to receive no
more than the sum of $1000, payable
in cash, within three months after the date
of the release, on making her appear-

ance at his residence, in West's addition
to Pittsburg, at any time within the next

forty (40) days.

Any person who may have any
claim against the said wife, is directed to

make his claim against the said husband.

March 12, 1846.—HORNMAN & GOODWIN.

ATTACHED to this paper, is a
copy of the deed of trust executed by

John F. Nichols, and others, for the construction of a bridge over the
Rocky Fork of the Illinois River, between

West's addition to Pittsburg and the

City of Quincy, ILLINOIS, which is

sufficient to pay the amount of the debt.

JOHN F. NICHOLS,
March 12, 1846.

TO THE PUBLIC.

NOTICE.—HELEN HORNMAN,

WIFE OF THE HONORABLE J. D.

GOODWIN, of the counties of Ad-

ams and Macoupin, has been granted a
release of all debts due her by the said

husband, and is entitled to receive no
more than the sum of $1000, payable
in cash, within three months after the date
of the release, on making her appear-

ance at his residence, in West's addition
to Pittsburg, at any time within the next

forty (40) days.

Any person who may have any
claim against the said wife, is directed to

make his claim against the said husband.

March 12, 1846.—HORNMAN & GOODWIN.

ATTACHED to this paper, is a
copy of the deed of trust executed by

John F. Nichols, and others, for the construction of a bridge over the
Rocky Fork of the Illinois River, between

West's addition to Pittsburg and the

City of Quincy, ILLINOIS, which is

sufficient to pay the amount of the debt.

JOHN F. NICHOLS,
March 12, 1846.

TO THE PUBLIC.

NOTICE.—HELEN HORNMAN,

WIFE OF THE HONORABLE J. D.

GOODWIN, of the counties of Ad-

ams and Macoupin, has been granted a
release of all debts due her by the said

husband, and is entitled to receive no
more than the sum of $1000, payable
in cash, within three months after the date
of the release, on making her appear-

ance at his residence, in West's addition
to Pittsburg, at any time within the next

forty (40) days.

Any person who may have any
claim against the said wife, is directed to

make his claim against the said husband.

March 12, 1846.—HORNMAN & GOODWIN.

ATTACHED to this paper, is a
copy of the deed of trust executed by

John F. Nichols, and others, for the construction of a bridge over the
Rocky Fork of the Illinois River, between

West's addition to Pittsburg and the

City of Quincy, ILLINOIS, which is

sufficient to pay the amount of the debt.

JOHN F. NICHOLS,
March 12, 1846.

TO THE PUBLIC.

NOTICE.—HELEN HORNMAN,

WIFE OF THE HONORABLE J. D.

GOODWIN, of the counties of Ad-

ams and Macoupin, has been granted a
release of all debts due her by the said

husband, and is entitled to receive no
more than the sum of $1000, payable
in cash, within three months after the date
of the release, on making her appear-

ance at his residence, in West's addition
to Pittsburg, at any time within the next

forty (40) days.

Any person who may have any
claim against the said wife, is directed to

make his claim against the said husband.

March 12, 1846.—HORNMAN & GOODWIN.

ATTACHED to this paper, is a
copy of the deed of trust executed by

John F. Nichols, and others, for the construction of a bridge over the
Rocky Fork of the Illinois River, between

West's addition to Pittsburg and the

City of Quincy, ILLINOIS, which is

sufficient to pay the amount of the debt.

JOHN F. NICHOLS,
March 12, 1846.

TO THE PUBLIC.

NOTICE.—HELEN HORNMAN,

WIFE OF THE HONORABLE J. D.

GOODWIN, of the counties of Ad-

ams and Macoupin, has been granted a
release of all debts due her by the said

husband, and is entitled to receive no
more than the sum of $1000, payable
in cash, within three months after the date
of the release, on making her appear-

ance at his residence, in West's addition
to Pittsburg, at any time within the next

forty (40) days.

Any person who may have any
claim against the said wife, is directed to

make his claim against the said husband.

March 12, 1846.—HORNMAN & GOODWIN.

ATTACHED to this paper, is a
copy of the deed of trust executed by

John F. Nichols, and others, for the construction of a bridge over the
Rocky Fork of the Illinois River, between

West's addition to Pittsburg and the

City of Quincy, ILLINOIS, which is

sufficient to pay the amount of the debt.

JOHN F. NICHOLS,
March 12, 1846.

TO THE PUBLIC.

NOTICE.—HELEN HORNMAN,

WIFE OF THE HONORABLE J. D.

GOODWIN, of the counties of Ad-

ams and Macoupin, has been granted a
release of all debts due her by the said

husband, and is entitled to receive no
more than the sum of $1000, payable
in cash, within three months after the date
of the release, on making her appear-

ance at his residence, in West's addition
to Pittsburg, at any time within the next

forty (40) days.

Any person who may have any
claim against the said wife, is directed to

make his claim against the said husband.

March 12, 1846.—HORNMAN & GOODWIN.

ATTACHED to this paper, is a
copy of the deed of trust executed by

John F. Nichols, and others, for the construction of a bridge over the
Rocky Fork of the Illinois River, between

West's addition to Pittsburg and the

City of Quincy, ILLINOIS, which is

sufficient to pay the amount of the debt.

JOHN F. NICHOLS,
March 12, 1846.

TO THE PUBLIC.

NOTICE.—HELEN HORNMAN,

WIFE OF THE HONORABLE J. D.

GOODWIN, of the counties of Ad-

ams and Macoupin, has been granted a
release of all debts due her by the said

husband, and is entitled to receive no
more than the sum of $1000, payable
in cash, within three months after the date
of the release, on making her appear-

ance at his residence, in West's addition
to Pittsburg, at any time within the next

forty (40) days.

Any person who may have any
claim against the said wife, is directed to

make his claim against the said husband.

March 12, 1846.—HORNMAN & GOODWIN.

ATTACHED to this paper, is a
copy of the deed of trust executed by

John F. Nichols, and others, for the construction of a bridge over the
Rocky Fork of the Illinois River, between

West's addition to Pittsburg and the

City of Quincy, ILLINOIS, which is

sufficient to pay the amount of the debt.

JOHN F. NICHOLS,
March 12, 1846.

TO THE PUBLIC.

NOTICE.—HELEN HORNMAN,

WIFE OF THE HONORABLE J. D.

GOODWIN, of the counties of Ad-

ams and Macoupin, has been granted a
release of all debts due her by the said

husband, and is entitled to receive no
more than the sum of $1000, payable
in cash, within three months after the date
of the release, on making her appear-

ance at his residence, in West's addition
to Pittsburg, at any time within the next

forty (40) days.

Any person who may have any
claim against the said wife, is directed to

make his claim against the said husband.

March 12, 1846.—HORNMAN & GOODWIN.

ATTACHED to this paper, is a
copy of the deed of trust executed by

John F. Nichols, and others, for the construction of a bridge over the
Rocky Fork of the Illinois River, between

West's addition to Pittsburg and the

City of Quincy, ILLINOIS, which is

sufficient to pay the amount of the debt.

JOHN F. NICHOLS,
March 12, 1846.

TO THE PUBLIC.

NOTICE.—HELEN HORNMAN,

WIFE OF THE HONORABLE J. D.

GOODWIN, of the counties of Ad-

ams and Macoupin, has been granted a
release of all debts due her by the said

husband, and is entitled to receive no
more than the sum of $1000, payable
in cash, within three months after the date
of the release, on making her appear-

ance at his residence, in West's addition
to Pittsburg, at any time within the next

forty (40) days.

Any person who may have any
claim against the said wife, is directed to

make his claim against the said husband.

March 12, 1846.—HORNMAN & GOODWIN.

ATTACHED to this paper, is a
copy of the deed of trust executed by

John F. Nichols, and others, for the construction of a bridge over the
Rocky Fork of the Illinois River, between

West's addition to Pittsburg and the

City of Quincy, ILLINOIS, which is

sufficient to pay the amount of the debt.

JOHN F. NICHOLS,
March 12, 1846.

TO THE PUBLIC.

NOTICE.—HELEN HORNMAN,

WIFE OF THE HONORABLE J. D.

GOODWIN, of the counties of Ad-

ams and Macoupin, has been granted a
release of all debts due her by the said

husband, and is entitled to receive no
more than the sum of $1000, payable
in cash, within three months after the date
of the release, on making her appear-