

Washington, Dec. 12. 1847

Dear Williams:

As soon as the Congressional Globe and Appendix begins to issue, I shall send you a copy of it regularly - I wish you to read it, or as much of it as you please, and be careful to preserve all the numbers, so that we can have a complete file of it

There is nothing new here, but what you see in the papers -

Yours as ever.

A. Lincoln
