

Pekin. June 8th 49.

Dear Sir

for Perkins

wishes some aid for a friend of his, which he will explain to you, I can not at the present moment ask anything from Washington, you may be ~~in~~ fortunate.

The Dr is now the best fellow in the world, and you very good friend indeed. If you ever see him, say I am well.

Truly
Yours
C. B. Baker

If my solicitations will add additional weight to the foregoing, I would cheerfully say, that the gentlemen alluded to, shall succeed in his projects. I shall consider myself under further obligations to you.

As ever
Yrs
James
