WHIGS, ATTENTION! Now's the day and now's the hour !" EVERY WHIG VOTE! VOTE EARLY!

DANIEL WEBSTER. We have always regarded the reply of Mr. Webster to Col. Hayne, of South Carolina, in the Nullification Debate, as the most sublime emanation of his immortal mind. So long as the English language shall endure, so long as this Union shall stand, so long as patriotism shall find a resting place in the bosoms of American citizens; so long will thereply of the Great Expounder of our Constitution be regarded as the highest triumph of Daniel Webster's gigantic intellect. Alas! that such a man should be called away from the People for whom he spent

Our readers, in view of the great national bereavement, cannot but be interested with the opening and closing paragraphs of Daniel Webster's reply to Col. Haynes, of South Carolinaa, when the question of Nullification threatened the disruption of the American Union:

"Mr. PRESIDENT: When the mariner has been tossed, for many days, in thick weather, and on an unknown sea, he naturally avails himself of the first pause in the storm, the earliest glance of the sun, to take his latitude, and ascertain how far the elements have driven him from his true course. Let us imitate his prudence, and before we float farther, refer to the point from which we may at CALHOUN? least conjecture where we now are. I ask for the reading of the resolution. "Mr. President, I have thus stated the reasons of my dissent to the doctrines which have been advanced and maintained. [Those of Nullification.] I am conscious of having detained you and the Senate, much too long. I was drawn down into the debate, with no previous deliberation such as is suited to the discussion of so grave and important a subriect. But it is a subject of which my heart is full, and I have not been able to suppress the utterance of its spontaneous sentiments. I cannot, even now persuade myself to relinquish it, without expressing once more my deep conviction, that since it respects nothing less than the Union of the States, it is of most vital and essential importance to the public, have kept steadily in view the prosperity and honor federal Union. It is to that Union we owe our safety at home, and our consideration and dignity elebted for whatever makes us most proud of our country. That Union we reached only by the disration has teemed with fresh proofs of its utility stretched out, wider and wider, and our population spread farther and farther, they, have not outrun its protection, or its benefits. It has been to all a copious fountain of national, social, and personal happiness. I have not allowed myself, sir, to look beyond the Union, to see what might lie hidden in the dark recess behind: I have not coolly weighed the chances of preserving liberty, when the bonds that unite us together shall be broken asunder. I have not accustomed myself to hang over the precipice of disunion, to see whether, with my short sight, I can fathom the depth of the abyss below; nor could I regard him as a safe counsellor in the affairs of this Government, whose thought should be mainly bent on considering, not how the Union should be best preserved, but how tolerably might be the condition of the people when it shall be broken up and destroved. While the Union lasts, we have high, exciting, gratifying prospects spread out before us, for as and our children. Beyond that I seek not to penetrate the veil. God grant that, in my day, at least, that curtain may not raise. God grant that on my vision never may be opened what lies behind. When my eyes shall be turned to behold for the last time, the sun in heaven, may I not see him shining on the broken and dishonored fragments of a once glerious Union; on States dissevered, discordant beligerent; on a land rent with civil feuds, or drenched, it may be in fraternal blood! Let their last feeble and lingering glance, rather behold the gorgeons ensign of the Republic, now known and honored throughout the earth, still full high advanced, its arms and trophies streaming in their origi-

Nor those other words of delusion and folly-Lib-spread all over in characters of living light, blazing

DON'T DO IT! EVERY MAN VETE FOR YATES! JOHN CALHOUN AND THE TERRE HAUTE

AND ALTON ROAD. We have received from a friend in Carlinville, a copy of a very extraordinary handbill. It is signed "JOHN CALHOUN," and headed-"LOOK OUT FOR LYING WHIG HAND BILLS!" The friend from whom we received it, writes-"Yesterday our town was flooded with hand bills like the one enclosed. Presuming that this handbill has not been circulated in your city, I send you one." The handbill states that John Burnap has been sent from this city to Hillsborough, with a large quantity of whig handbills. Mr. Burnap is certainly absent from this city, and with his sick wife, is at his father's residence, in Montgomery county; but he has carried no whig handbills, for the best reason, that we have printed none. No whig handbill has been sent from this office during the present canvass .-Mr. Calhoun's statement on this point, is, therefore, a sheer fabrication.

But Mr. Calhoun is afraid that his imputed opposition to the Alton and Terre Haute railroad, will lose him votes in Shelby, Macoupin and Montgomery counties. He knows that in this town there are scores of persons who were witnesses of his efforts upon members of the Legislature in 1849, to prostruction of a railroad from St. Louis to Terre-Haute. No longer ago than at the last special session of the Legislature, Mr. Calhoun was again in the lobby, laboring for the charter of the Terre-Haute and St. Louis railroad. He warmly en tered into Mr. Brough's project for this road.

It is not necessary for us to add more proof on this subject; but we will copy a note now lying be

"EDWARDSVILLE, August 31, 1852. Mr. Yates was always our true friend in and out of the Legislature on the State Policy question, as his votes will show, when Calhoun, on the contrary, was always against us, as can be proven by every man about Springfield during the session of the legislature. J. GILLESPIE."

Now we wish to draw the attention of all people, we care not of what party they are, to the followng extract from the handbill above referred to, and to which the name of "JOHN CALHOUN" is

"I have never opposed the Terre Haute and Alton Rail Road."

Citizens of Springfield!-Citizens of Sangamon county! and of Macoupin, Shelby and Montgomery counties,-what can you think of this man, JOHN

FOREIGN BORN CITIZENS!

You well recollect wehn every man of you, six months in country, was allowed to vote! A democratic State Convention CUT YOU OFF FROM THIS PRIVILEGE! Who dare deny it? Who does not know this truth?

RICH DEVELOPMENT.

Every body recollects the letter that Harris sent to the convention which nominated Calhoun. He charged that he, Calhoun, had obtained a majority of the members in his favor by bar-room and other improper influences. Who ever then thought that Harris' would support Calboun? Soon a change in the deportment of the two men was noticed .-They were cheek by jowl, and Harris was laboring happiness. I profess, sir, in my career hitherto to for the election of Calhoun. Now, when it is too late to make this affair affect the election, it is acof the whole country, and the preservation of our knowledged that an arrangement has been made by which Harris and Calhoun are to alternate-Calhoun to be elected now; and Harris the next term. abroad. It is to that Union that we are chiefly in- This is now talked of publicly, and not denied in any quarter, as we have heard. It is thus that scheming politicians succeed forth with newness of life. Every year of its du. in keeping back merit and worth, and riding trinantly over the people. If Calhoun's friends and its blessings; and although our territory has had been as open-mouthed about this matter two weeks ago, as they are now, it would have been made to tell on the election. What is singular enough, it is now also said that Harris made his attack upon Calhoun for the purpose of forcing him into the bargain we have stated.

P. S. We have just learnt that men have been despatched to Morgan and Macoupin to deny, what is believed 10 be the fact here, that Calhoun and Harris, have made the arrangement stated in the above paragraph. It is even said, that Calhoun has a real or pretended certificate from Harris de_ nying the bargain. Just as if Harris would make such a bargain and then would not under some mental reservation, deny it. Calhoun may try to draw the wool over the eyes of the people in some parts of the District on this subject, but he is wise enough not to try the scheme here!

THE "HOOKEM-SNIVY" IN FRONT OF THE REGISTER OFFICE - DOUGLAS'S PARTING EXHORTATION.

The pole in front of the Register office has been a source of merriment to the Whigs ever since its erection. The day that Judge Douglas made his peech here, it wilted, and hung its head, as though in sorrow for the gloomy prospects of Pierce, and has remained so till this day, despite the strenuous exertions of the democracy to straighten it. The Judge on the morning he left looked up at it, and with a bitter smile said to his friends who were standing by, " For God's sake, do cut the d-d thing

P. S .- Half-past 10 o'clock Monday morning. - Since the above was written "The Pole, has been taken down! We are very sorry that Mr. TAYLOR, Daguerrean Artist in this city, who has taken the likeness of the "little giant" and placed it in his "galaxy" of pictures of remarkable things, had not also daguerreotyped "the Pole" and hung it alongside of the Judge-but, alas! he has not done it, and "the Pole" is lost to immortality!

A BOUT VOTING!

The Register of yesterday morning assumes that the whigs will attempt to prevent our adopted citizens from voting to-day; and it advises them not to take their naturalization papers to the polls. By the opinion of three whig lawyers and one democratic Judge, which we publish this morning, it seems the having the Naturalization papers at the olls is not indispensably necessary; but notwithstanding this, we would advise our friends among the adopted citizens to take their papers with them, as the shortest and easiest way of doing the thing up, in case of a controversy.

Springfield, Nov. 1, 1852. A leading article in the Daily Register of this morning has induced some of our friends to request our opinion on the election laws, as applicable to challenged votes. We have examined the present Constitution of the State, the election law of 1849, and the unrepealed parts of the election law in the Revised code of 1848; and we are of opinion that any person taking the oath prescribed in the act of 1849, is entitled to vote; unless counter proof be made, satisfying a majority of the Judges that such oath is untrue, and that for the purpose of obtainng such counter proof, the proposed voter may be asked questions in the way of cross-examination, and other independent testimony may be received. We base our opinion as to receiving counter proof, upon the unrepealed Section Nineteen of the election Law in the Revised code.
