

Oct 7. [1857]

A. Lincoln Esq.

Dear Sir,

in favor of the other instant, from which it is assumed.
 The failure of the other parties to obtain you in which having left you at liberty to remain a retained our company, I now say that I shall count upon your services in the already prepared for the supreme court from W. Leon and such other as may be deemed wise.

$250. as a general retainer - other bar-as to be adjusted between us as the character of the business in which you may be called upon to engage, may render proper. I hope to be at Springfield during the coming week.

Yours &

W. Grayman
Solicitor.
