The "Fillmont" county convention met at the court-house yesterday, and nominated the following county ticket:

Representatives—S. M. Cullom and — Ma. gredy; clerk-W. O. Jones; sheriff-John Cook; coroner-James Walker.

It will be readily seen what party this ticket represents. The spoils is the leading idea. Its members are for Fremont or Fillmore, as the stock of either may prodominate in the county. Stephen T. Logan was the president of the convention that made the nomination. Nuff sed!

EIGHTH DISTRICT.

The congressional nominations in the 8th district, Mr. Robert Smith for the long term, and J. L. D. Morrison for the vacancy, are such as cannot fail to meet the approval of the people. Without the district the democracy hail their nomination as an augury of an overwhelming victory where the trickery of traitorous demagogues have for two years past been running riot. Both the nominees are well known, not only to the people of the district, but throughout the state. Both are gentlemen of the first order of talent, and in canvassing the district they will tear the disguise off the time-serving renegades and tricksters who, for their own aggrandisement, have sought to lead the people into the paths of political error.

The ticket is a glorious one, and most nobly will the nominees battle for the democratic cause in the canvass they have been called upon to make. Look out for a majority in the 8th district which will exceed that of any former con-

The meeting advertised to be held at Rochester on the 23d, has been deferred to Monday, August 25th, owing to a meeting having been called to be held at Mechanicsburg on the 23d. Messrs. Anthony Thornton, Vandever, Mc-Clernand and E. B. Herndon are expected to address the meeting at Mechanicsburg, and the two latter and Mr. J. M. Davis, of Montgomery will address the meeting at Rochester.

THE DEMOCRACY AWAKE!

IMMENSE OUTPOURING OF THE PEOPLE!

6,000 White Men in Council! It was our good fortune to be present at the great meeting of democrats and Union men held at Taylorville, Christian county, on Saturday last.

In company with a democratic friend, we took a horse and buggy, and rode up to Taylorville on Friday night, and had the good luck, notwith. standing the immense crowd which had already commenced collecting, in securing quarters with our old friend, Dr. Goudy, whose hospitality we enjoyed during our stay. Beautifully the day broke on Saturday, and about nine o'clock the democratic million commenced pouring into the village. From all quarters of the beautiful and fertile county of Christian; from Shelby, from the lower edge of Macon, from the eastern section of Sangamon, from Montgomery, they poured into the town. The stalwart men of the fields and work shops, women and children, young and old, they streamed to the point of attraction, with banners flying. Since 1840 it has not been our fortune to witness such a popular outpouring. They came in wagons, in carriages, in buggies and on foot, to hear the discussion of the great issues which sectionalism has aroused, and to further the ends of which its leaders aim at in pandering to preju dices in the northern mind against the institutions of the people of the south.

About 9 o'clock the masses commenced pouring into the town. Delegations stretching for miles along the various roads leading to the village poured in, with music and banners, with every conceivable motto, indicating the devotion of their bearers to the principles of "popular sovereignty" and the rights of the states-"Buck and Breck"-"Richardson and Harris." The procession, under the management of our friends Vandever, Bond, Goudy, Goodrich and a score of other gallant democratic leaders, proceeded to the grove south of the town, to hear the speeches which were to be delivered by the distinguished gentlemen who had been invited to participate at the great popular gathering which had assembled.

We got into one of the Sangamon wagons and joined the procession; all along the line of which banners with mottoes were displayed, indicating the sentiment of the bearers. The ear was dinned with shouts for "Buck and Breck"-"Old Dick and the state ticket"-"Tom Harris and white men," who battled against the encroachments of negrodom, and the schemes of demagogues, who, in the name of "freedom," sought to trample upon the constitution and the integrity of the Union.

Arrived upon the ground we found a "sea of heads"-men, women and children, a convocation of thousands, who had assembled to hear true republican teaching and to give impetus to the ball of democracy which sectionalism would resist in the hypocritical name of "freedom."

Tastefully arranged around the stand were banners and mottoes, indicative of the cause in which Union men are engaged. Democrats, Union men of the old guard, the mothers and daughters, the wives and sweethearts, the grayheads and the youth of Christian and her borders. were assembled to hear the truths-the sound republican, national doctrines of the men who know no "law higher than the constitution."

We would like to detail all we saw and all we heard, but our limits forbid it. The immense assemblage was called to order by the selection of H. M. Vandever, esq., as president, and T. P. Bond and E. B. Read, vice presidents. The business of the meeting then commenced. The president introduced to the vast assemblage one tho, as a politician and as a man, through his long and eventful life, has ever been identified with the old whig party-Wm. F. Thornton, of Shelby county. He came, at the invitation of democrats and whigs, the good men and true of Christian, once more, at the close of his long and honorable career, to raise his voice in behalf of principles, which, until demagogues sought profit in disunion, were common to those who had hitherto fought with zeal for measures of political economy. The presence of such a man, his head frosted with the cares of 76 years, among a people a majority of whom he had ever opposed on minor questions, instead of exciting that furor of expression which would have been elicited under other circumstances, stilled the multitude to immediate silence to hear what one so respectable, one whose name has ever been coupled with honor and virtue, had to say on so momentous an occasion. He spoke as he never spoke before. The old man was equal to the occasion, as he ever has been when duty called. He depicted the present position of the country. He showed that while he abandoned none of his former opinions-while he made no sacrifice of political opinion-while he surrendered none of the cherished opinions of political economy which have marked the men and measures which he has supported, he felt that the present crisis was one in which he felt bound, as a patriot and as a man to raise his voice with that of the only political party which retained its nationality, to crush out the dishonest purposes of faction and to preserve the great work of the fathers of the republic pure as it came from their hands. As a whig he surrendered nothing. As a whig he was a national man. He looked to the constitution as the ark of the Union's safety, and outside of that he knew no democrat-no whig-he was with the states as their text-book. We will not undertake to follow this whig veteran through the entire line of his eloquent and able discourse. Notes of his speech were taken, and we hope hereafter to give it in full. Cheer upon cheer followed its delivery, and long will it be remembered by every man, women and child who was present.

We can but give an outline of what followed. J. M. Davis, of Montgomery, a distinguished old line whig, made an able speech. He defined his position much in the same vein with Gen. Thornton. Then followed Col. O. B. Ficklin, Col. John A. McClernand, and glorious old John Moore, the democratic wheel-horse of the state.

A splendid barbacue followed, which the hospitable people of Christian had spread out, which was honestly discussed by the immense crowd they had invited. After which the crowd formed a procession to witness the erection of a hickory pole upon the public square of Taylorville. Arrived upon the ground the tall shaft was | vestige of slavery; and though I may not mock their homes. At night some ten or twelve hundred assembled upon the public square to listen to further speaking, arranged by the county committee. First we had Anthony Thornton, then Moulton of Shelby, Dr. A. Barret, of St. Louis, and E. B. Herndon. Dr. A. Barret, of St. Louis, and E. B. We would be pleased to give an outline of the remarks of all the orators on the occasion of this agreeable reunion of the national men assembled at Taylorville, Tribune. but our limits forbid it. were made of the right stuff to "bet on." The meeting in the evening was closed by a few brief remarks from Judge Vandever, whose hospitable courtesy, we regret, forbid a more extended hearing from him. He returned, in the name of the people of Christian-the democracy and Union men-thanks for the presence and the able remarks of visitors, and promised (and we it will be know fulfilled) a majority of 600 for the white man's ticket in November. In the name of the visitors Mr. Anthony Thornton made a few remarks, when the meeting adjourned with three cheers for the national and state ticket, three for the Union whigs who participated, and three for Tom Dennis, our townsman, who superintended the erection of the pole.

As was promised by the speakers who so eloquently addressed the multitude on Saturday, we are satisfied that the state of public sentiment in the region immediately east and south of us is sound to the core. Niggerism has no foot-hold there. The people are alive to the true issue before them. They see the danger of sectionalism-in the accession to power of the party who rally under Fremont and Bissell, and democrat and whig—every man who loves the Union and be-lieves in the equality of the states, and the sovereign rights of the people, will be found shoul- set on fire. der to shoulder in November for Buchanan and Breckinridge—Richardson and Hamilton—Tom Harris and the democratic ticket generally and

For the Register. Great Excitement-Enthusiastic Meeting-Orto Twenty Persons Present!

In accordance with the notice which has stood at the head of the Journal for the past week, announcing that a "meeting of the friends of Fremont and Bissell" would be held at the court house, on Saturday evening, a large and enthusiastic meeting was held. The numbers in attendance have been variously estimated from fifteen to twenty persons, and some even reckoning as Buchanan and Fillmore men. The club was organised by calling Isaac A. Hawley to the chair, and appointing James Hill secretary.

Mr. Coats being then called upon, addressed the club, although he wasn't much accustomed to public speaking. At the close of his speech, Dr. Goltra was loudly called for by three or four persons, and arose amid the shouts and stamping of the aforesaid three or four persons. He said, like the former speaker, that he wasn't much accustomed to "speak in public on the stage," were to be there. Gen. Thornton, S. W. #### MORE RUFFIANISM IN KANSAS! Abolitionism Rampant.

The St. Louis Democrat of Saturday has the following:

Westport, August 13, 1856.
We are indebted to our fellow-citizen, H. W. Jones, esq., who just arrived from Franklin, for the following important and exciting news:

Dr. Cavanaugh—Dear Sir: I wish hereby to make known to the afficted that I have been troubled with the Piles for twenty years or upwards, and at times most severely. And during a recent and exceedingly painfulattack, a friend procured a box of your salve and asked me to give it a trial. I did so. Not, however, with the expectation of benefitting my disease, for truly, I had tited so many applications I had lost confidence in all. But in making use of your salve, I soon found that it was doing me good; and really itlis incredible to myself, that with only about two weeks use of your salve, I am, so far as I can judge, a well man.

I most cheerfully make this, statement, believing it due both to yourself and such as may be afflicted with this most trying and painful disease. I do not hesitate to say that I consider your preparation an invaluable remedy for the Piles.

Most sincerely yours,

H. N. HEALD.

The following from Rev. B. F. Bristow, is a sufficient recommendation for itself:

Jacksonville, Ill., Dec. 15, 1855.

Dr. Cavanaugh—I cenceive it to be a duty I owe to the afflicted to make known the invaluable virtues and remedial efficiency of your "Pile Salve." I was for several weeks sorely afflicted with that painful and loatlasome disease, the Piles. After having exhausted my patience in trying various prescriptions of physicians and others without receiving any benefit, by the strong recommendation of your salve by my friend, the Hon. Richard Yates, I was induced to try it. I am happy in saying an application of your salve for three days, perfected an entire cure.

Respectfully yours,

B. F. BRISTOW. For the opening and extension of Miller street
