

Atlanta, Ga. 13th / 55

Hon. A. Lincoln -

Sir -

I have delayed writing to you for some time, in reference to the business you have undertaken for me, thinking you would probably visit Atlanta soon, when I could see you - as I have been unable to learn when you are expected. I have concluded to address you, for the purpose of finding out what more it will be necessary for me to ~~do~~ if any-thing, in order that I may be successful -

I fear this matter

will seem rather unimportant to you (when compared with the subject that is principally occupying your attention at present) yet however much so, it may seem to you - to me, it is of the greatest importance that I should succeed, now that I have undertaken -

Very respectfully -

Emma. B. Stark.

Hon. A. Lincoln.

[Aug 13, 1858]

Emma A. Stark

1233

Hon. A. Lincoln,
Springfield.
Illinois.

