

Dear Lincoln

I go home this afternoon and soon that I could not see you - As soon as Judge Trembule and yourself arrange your appointments send me a list of them I want to publish them in connection with the Congressional appointments and make a flume of them in the News papers - Of course in your arrangements you will leave something for any unexpected but necessary call

Allow me to suggest that in your next joint debate where you have the opening you make your entire opening a series of charges against Douglas leaving all statement of your own views for your reply - There is no danger now of your personal position being mistaken.

And I want one general redist ment against Douglas, beginning with the repeal of the Missouri Compromise
